

Home Learning Policy

Christ Church School is a vibrant, enthusiastic, caring and safe learning environment in which children are given every opportunity to complete a fulfilling primary school education.

At Christ Church we believe that homework plays an important part in a child's education. The benefit of doing homework must be instilled at an early age so that independent study can be achieved.

We are also aware that children have opportunities and experiences outside of school that are equally important in developing and enriching their lives. We will give careful consideration to making homework well-balanced across the school.

This Homework Policy was developed in consultation with staff members, parents, pupils and with the agreement of the Governing Body.

Aims

Christ Church's Homework Policy aims to:

- Develop a consistent approach to homework throughout the school.
- Make sure that teaching staff, parents and pupils are aware of their responsibilities with regard to homework.
- Ensure that parents have clarity on what their child is expected to do.
- Encourage pupils to develop the responsibility and self-discipline required for independent study.
- Support pupils' learning experiences via revision and reinforcement.
- Work with parents and involve them in their child's learning and to keep them informed about the work their child is covering.
- Use homework as a tool for raising standards of attainment.
- Improve the quality of the learning experiences by extending it beyond the classroom.
- Give pupils further practice and deeper understanding of skills, knowledge and concepts learned during the school day.
- Use homework as a tool to assess prior learning and inform planning.

Absences

- If a child is absent from school due to illness or medical reasons, the school will not supply work for these periods as pupils should be well enough to undertake work. In some cases, there may be exceptions to this rule and the school has the right to decide whether this is acceptable or not.
- If the child is absent for a long period of time, e.g. with a broken arm, the teacher and the parent of the child will agree on what should be done and how much help should be given to the child.

Pupils who fail to complete homework

All pupils are expected to complete homework on time. Teachers will keep records of pupils completing homework which will be regularly checked. If pupils fail to complete homework, teachers will contact parents to find out why.

Marking homework

Homework may be marked in a variety of ways according to the school's marking policy. The work will be ticked to show that it has been marked. Sometimes, the work is marked in detail and comments are given on future progress. Occasionally, the work may be marked orally with the child or class. Teachers will not mark homework that is handed in late.

Pupils with SEND

- The school recognises that pupils with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) may require that specific tasks be set in the form of Learning Plans.
- While pupils with SEND may benefit from special tasks separate from the homework received from other pupils, it is important that they also do as much as possible in common with other pupils.
- A balanced amount of the right type of homework will be set for pupils with SEND, in consultation with the parents and SENCO.

This policy is reviewed annually, although it may be amended as necessary throughout the year.
