SECTION 8: DBS DECLARATION - LDBS Schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children. Assessment and testing of applicants' suitability to work with children is an integral part of the selection process. Any discrepancies or anomalies in information provided will be taken up at interview. Current or previous employers will be contacted as part of the verification process.

The post you are applying for is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and therefore you are required to declare any convictions, cautions, reprimands and final warnings that are not 'protected' (ie filtered out) as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) order 1975 (as amended in 2013) . The amendments to the Exceptions Order provide that certain 'spent' convictions and cautions are 'protected' and are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found using the following link.

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dbs-filtering-guidance>

Please ensure that you answer the following questions honestly as false statements or withholding relevant information will result in one of the following actions being taken:

- your application will be taken no further
- an offer of employment will be withdrawn
- disciplinary action leading to dismissal will be taken (if employment has commenced)

You are required to say whether you have any convictions, cautions, reprimands or final warnings that are not 'protected' as defined by the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (as amended in 2013).

Do you have anything to declare in relation to the above ?	Yes <input type="checkbox"/>	No <input type="checkbox"/>

If yes to either of the above, please give details on a separate sheet and attach it to this form in a sealed envelope marked 'Confidential Disclosure'.

I understand that if my application is successful I will be required to obtain an enhanced DBS Certificate.

SECTION 9: DATA PROTECTION & APPLICANT DECLARATION

Data Protection – Applicant Privacy Notice

The School is a Data Controller and as such has a duty to explain to you what information is collected and why, and who, if anyone, it is shared with under the General Data Protection Regulation 2016. This information is briefly laid out below and is also available in our Staffing Privacy Notices, along with details of our Data Protection Officer.

We collect all the information laid out in this form, in the form of references from current and/or previous employers, and if shortlisted from the selection process. The information given to us, and collected by us will form part of the contract of employment for successful candidates. We process this information in order to:

- administer the application, shortlisting and selection process
- assess your suitability to work with children and young people
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- defend legal claims
- fraud detection and prevention
- monitor protected characteristics in order to promote equality at work

No decisions are based on automated decision making.

We process this information about you because the processing is necessary for us to enter into an employment (or other work-related) contract with you. We also need to process this information to ensure that we are complying with our legal obligations under the Employment Act and with the DfE statutory guidance document, Keeping Children Safe in Education, as well as other school specific legislation.

We have a legitimate interest in processing data from job applicants in order to administer the recruitment process, to monitor compliance with our policies, to defend any legal claims and to ensure that the most suitable applicant is appointed to the role, based on an assessment of their likely performance amongst other factors.

We process special category data, such as information about your ethnic origin or health, as part of our equal opportunities monitoring process and in order to meet legal obligations. This information is collected with the express consent of job applicants. Consent may be withdrawn by an applicant at any time.

We may offer to contact unsuccessful applicants within a period of six months following the application if another suitable vacancy arises. Information is only used in this way with the express consent of applicants, which may be withdrawn at any time.

If we wish to process your personal data for a new purpose we will inform you of any additional processing.

Information from your application form and from the shortlisting and selection process will be stored in a paper-based file, in electronic records within our HR system and also in other IT systems, including email.

A copy of your application form and all other personal data collected during the recruitment and selection process will be held as follows:

For successful applicants this will be transferred to a personnel file where it will be held securely. You will be given a workforce privacy notice upon appointment which will explain how we will hold and process your data as an employee.

For unsuccessful applicants, securely for a period of six months.

Your information will be shared with school staff with a recruitment responsibility. This will include members of our HR and administrative staff, those responsible for shortlisting and interviewing and managers within the relevant area of work or department. Equality monitoring information is separated from the application form upon receipt and is not shared with those responsible for shortlisting and interviewing.

We do not share information about job applicants with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We will not share your data with third parties unless and until an offer of employment is made to you. At that stage, your data will be shared to fulfil legal requirements, obtain or provide necessary information or because the third party processes data on our behalf. These third parties include:

- The Disclosure and Barring Service in order to undertake a criminal record check
- Suppliers and consultants that provide us with a service, such as occupational health, HR or legal services
- Relevant professional bodies in order to verify your qualifications (such as the Teaching Regulation Agency for teaching posts).

When we appoint third parties to process data on our behalf, the third party is also required to process the data lawfully and fairly and in a manner that ensures appropriate security of the data, using appropriate technical or organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing and accidental loss.

We do not transfer your data to countries outside the European Economic Area.

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact our data protection officer (details at the beginning of this document).

You also have the right to:

- restrict processing of your data in certain circumstances;
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing;
- object to decisions being taken by automated means;
- object to the processing of your data where we are relying on our legitimate interests as the lawful basis for processing;
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of data protection legislation.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

If you would like to discuss anything above, please contact the School Office.

Applicant Declaration

I declare that the information given on this form is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief, and I understand that any false statements on this form are an offence and could result in my application being rejected or summary dismissal and, where relevant, possible referral to the teachers' misconduct team or police if appropriate. I agree that the information I give you in connection with this application for employment may be stored and processed for the purpose of personnel management.

Date:	Signed _____

If applying online you will be asked to sign your application at interview.

If your application is not successful would you be happy for your application to be passed on to another LDBS school with a similar vacancy? All information would be handled and transferred under the terms of the General Data Protection Regulation 2018.
